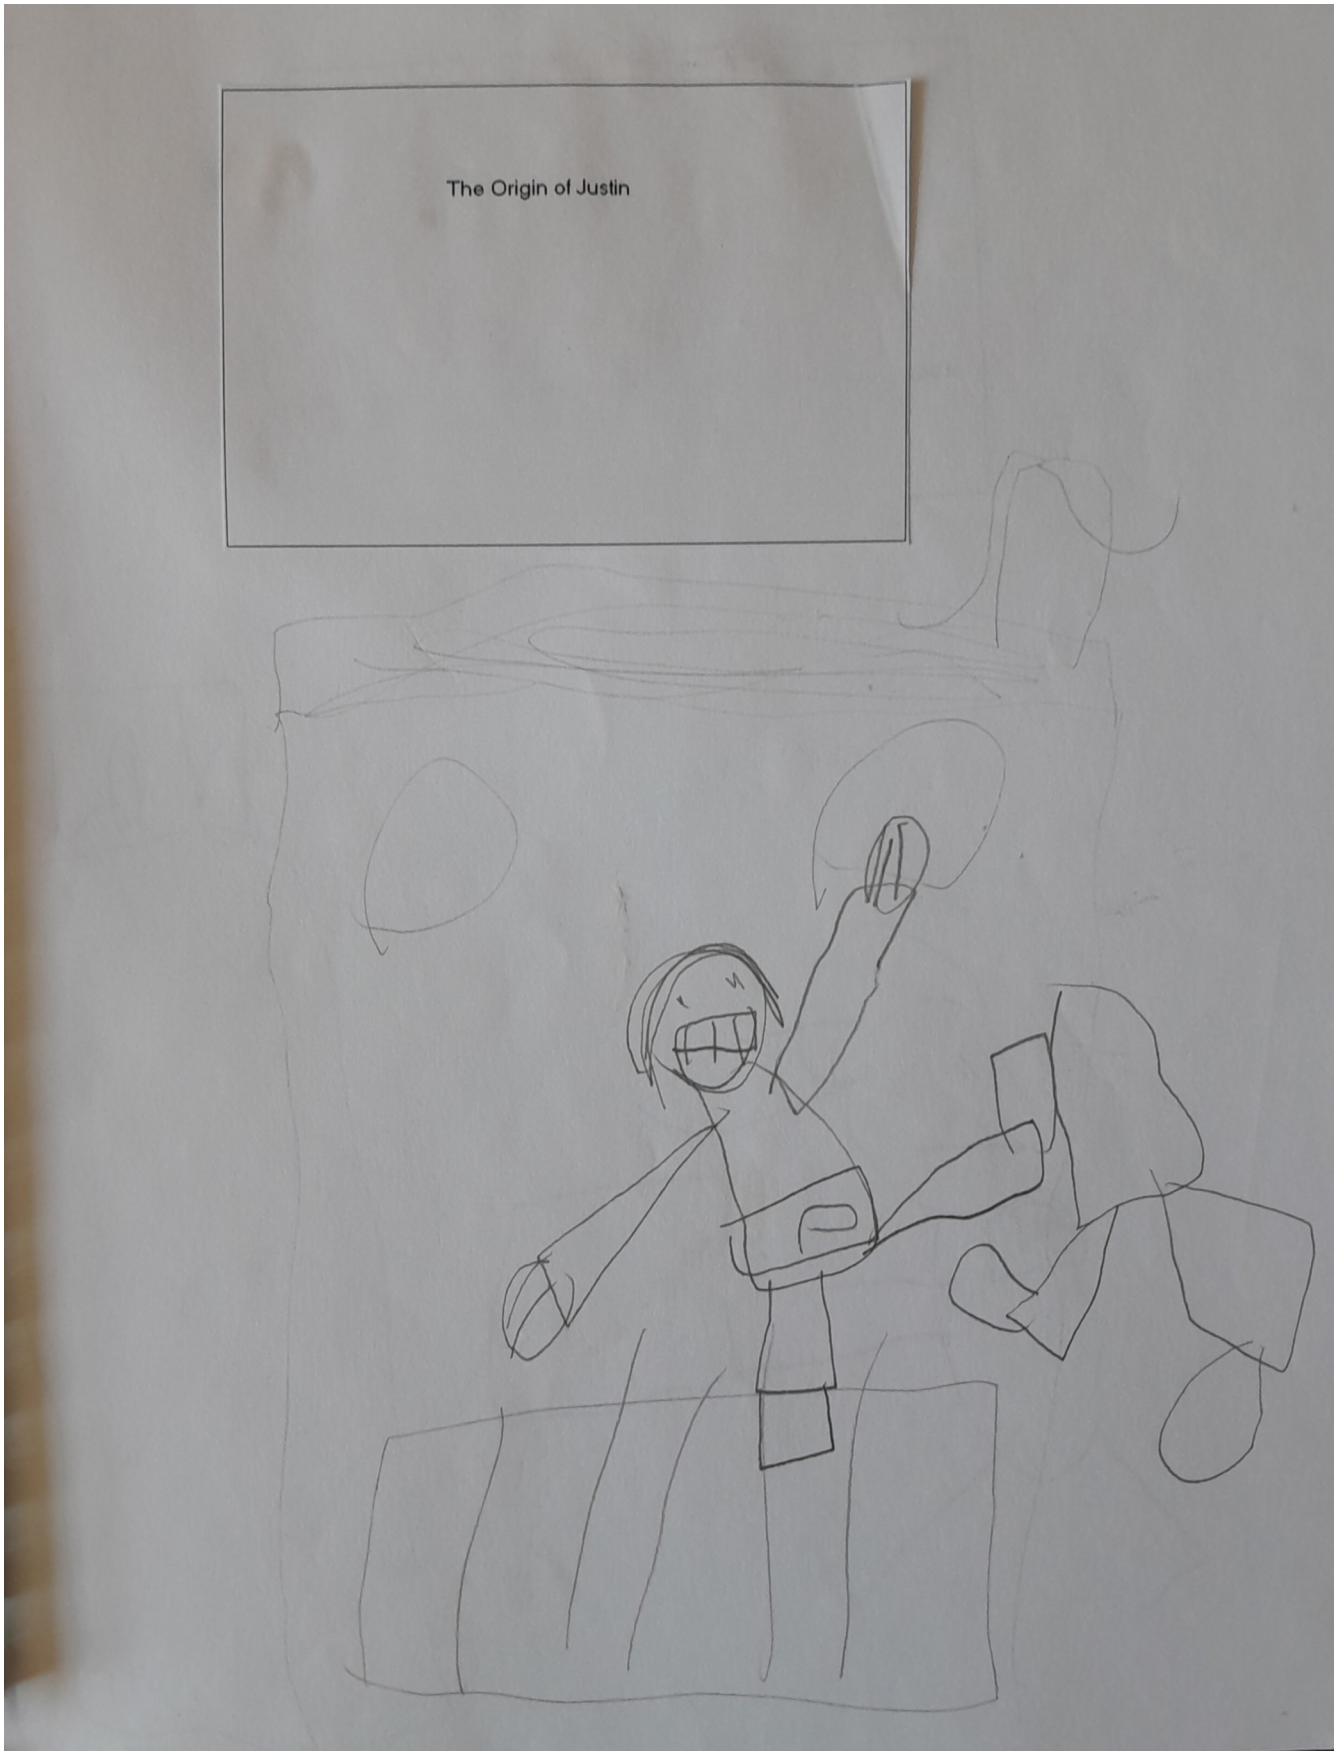
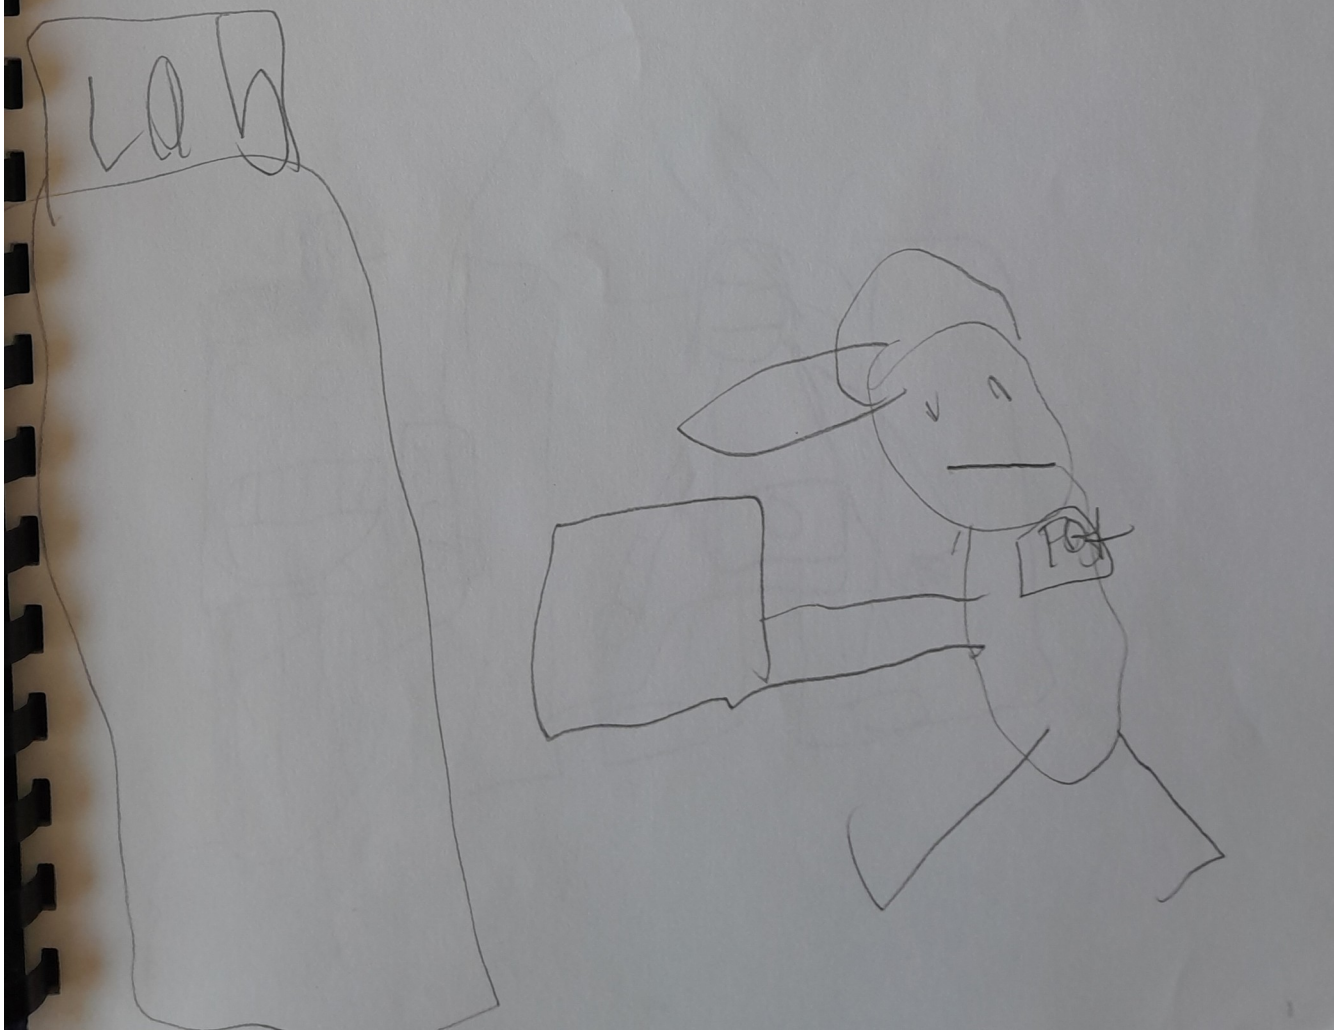
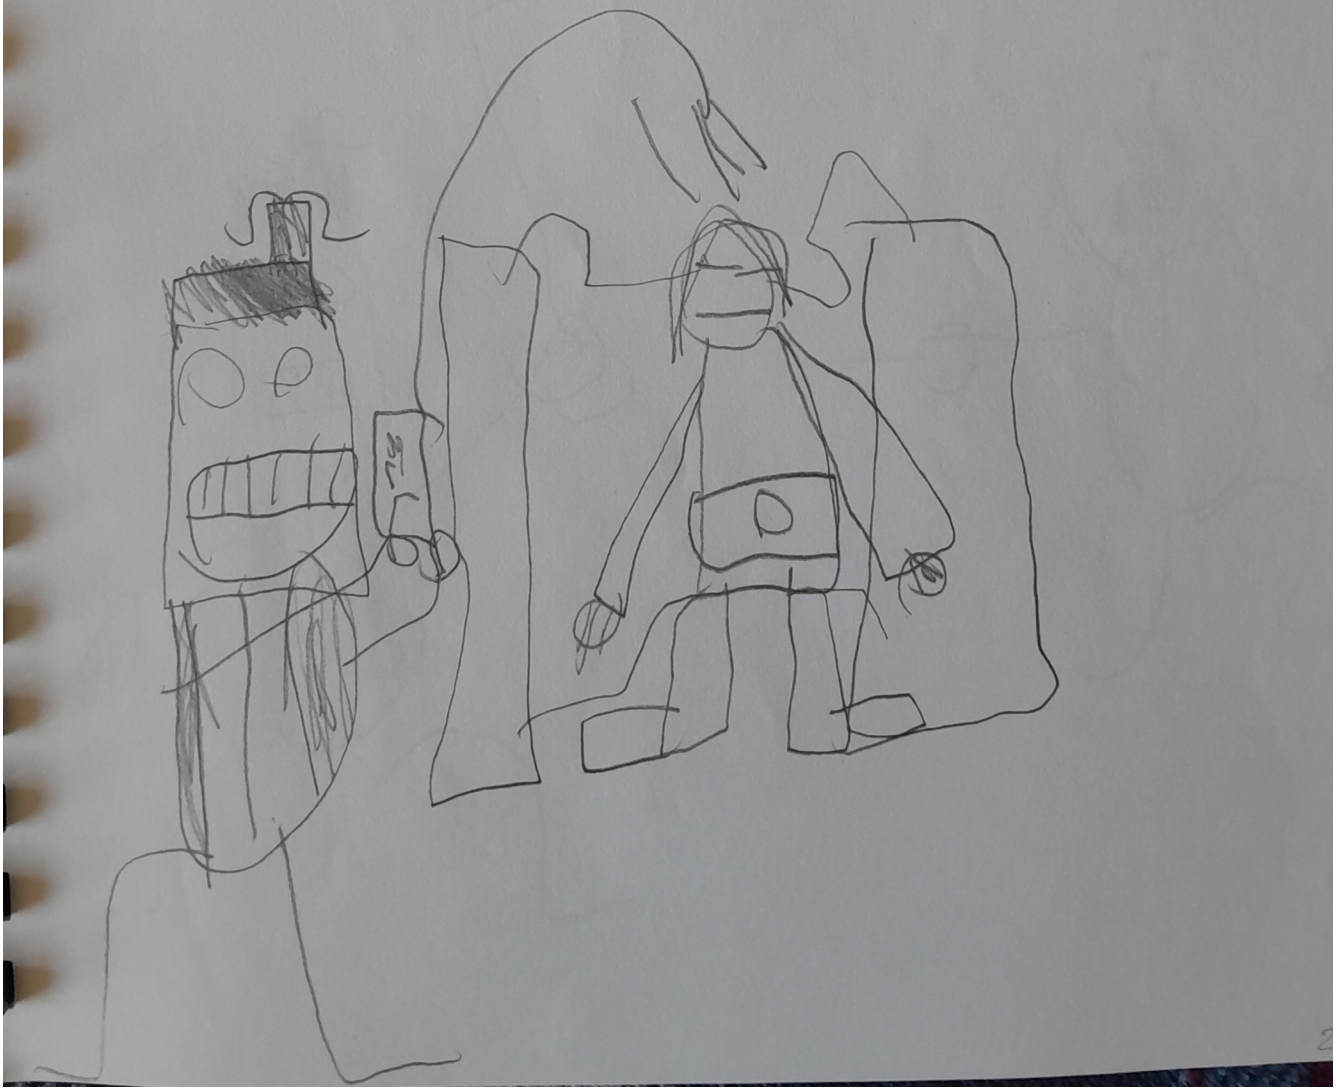
The Origin of Justin



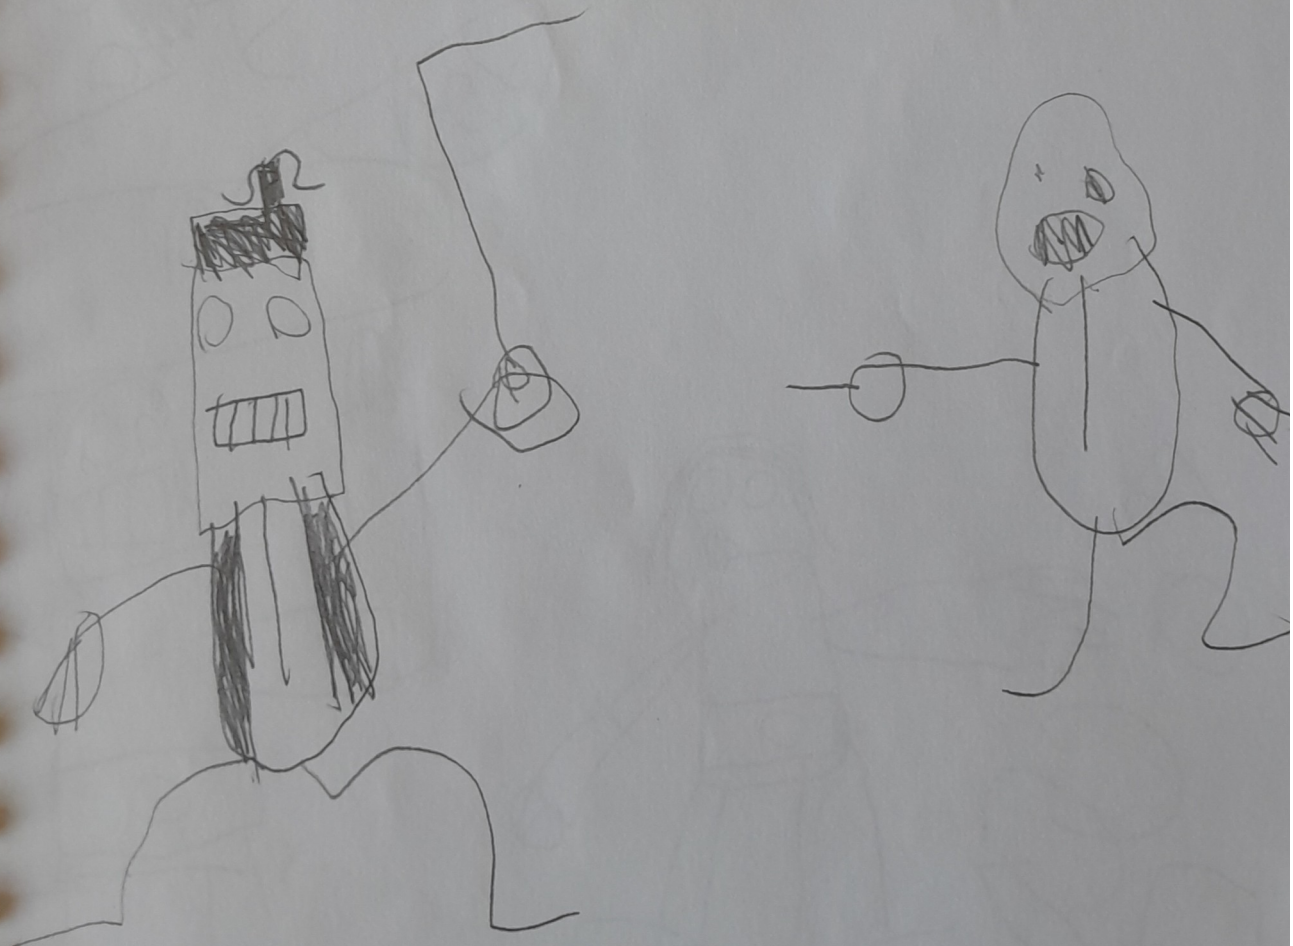
One Summer day our craft research team got the parts they needed to complete their ultimate project.



Justin's body was finished. The suspicious worker named Dr. David Membres took his newest invention the robot contoller to control Justin.

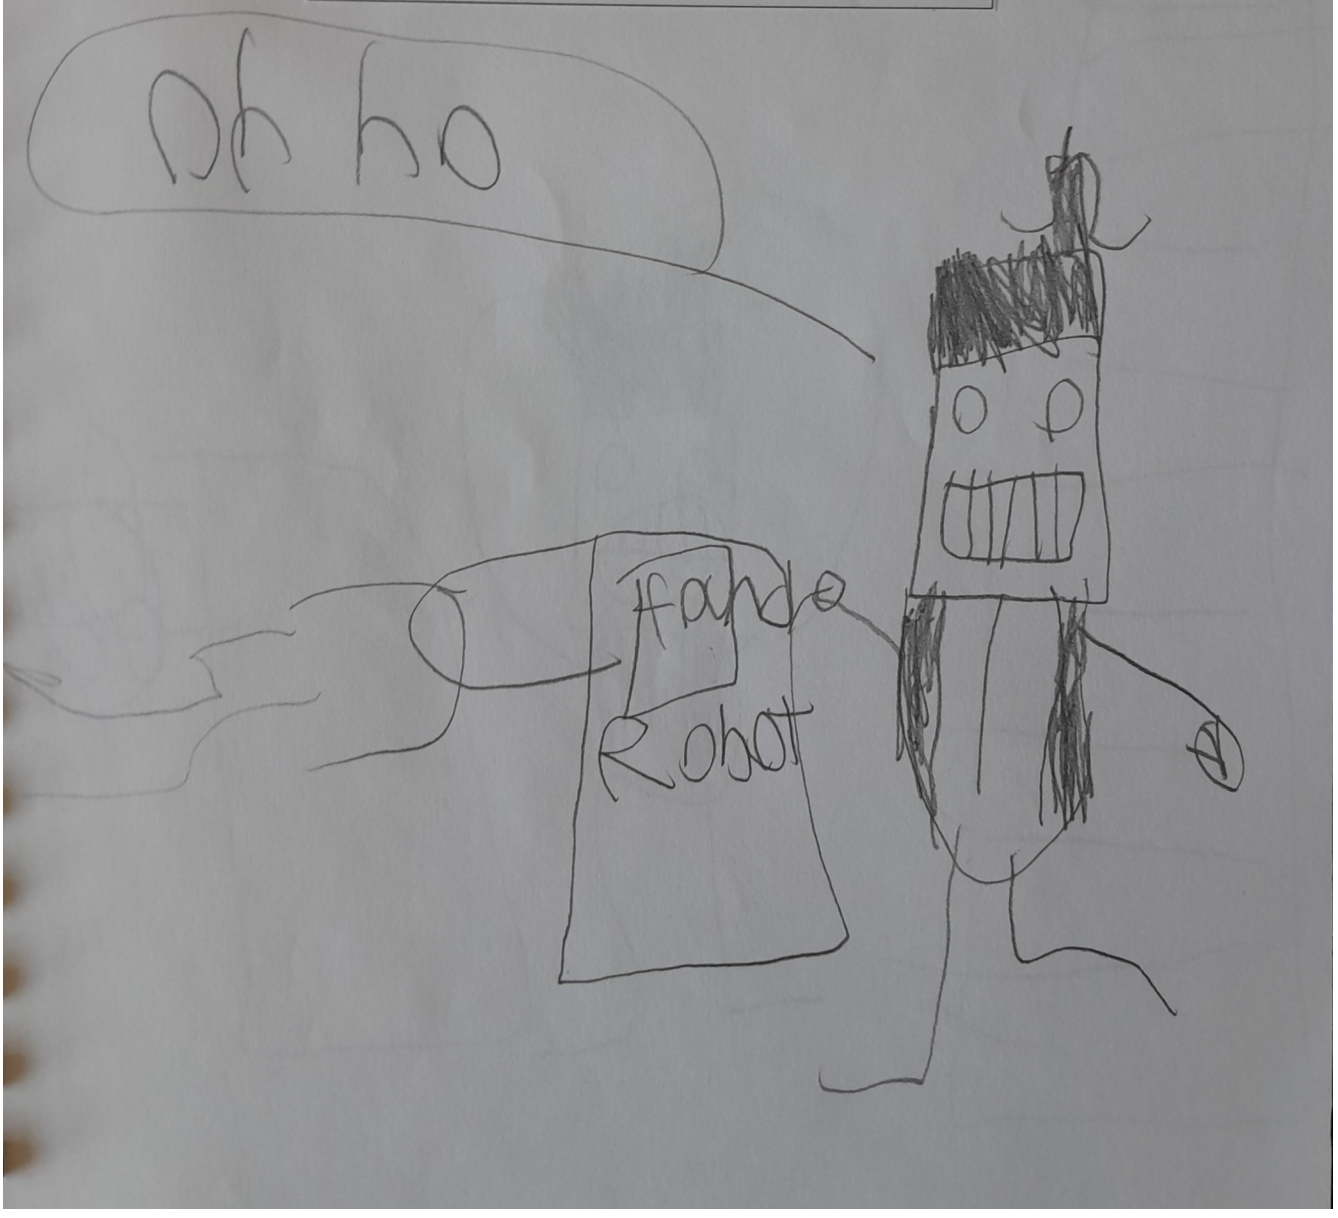


Meanwhile, one of Dr Membres friends came down and said " hey what are you doing?" he said. " Oh just testing this new device I made and gotta go see ya". " My plan failed" said Dr.Membres.

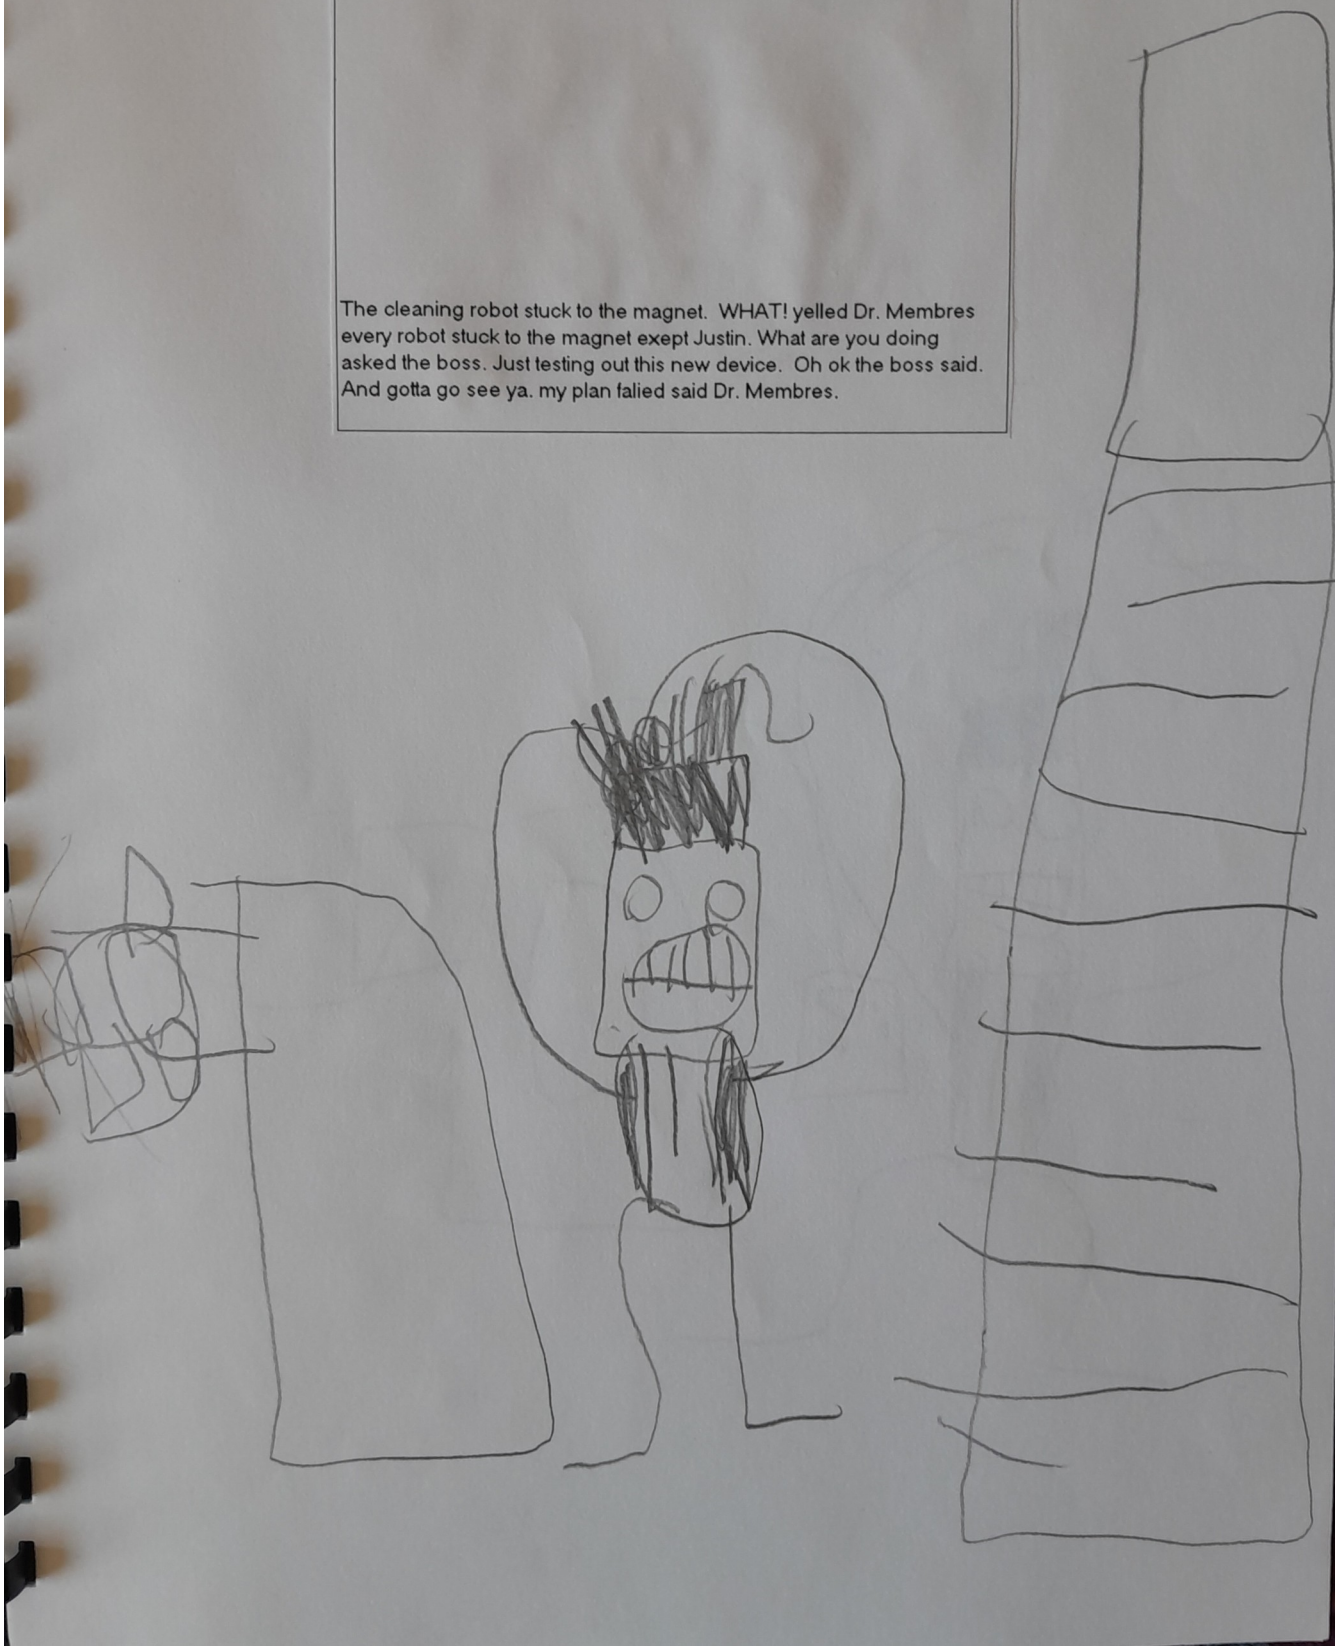


The next day Justin was on a roll. He could punch really hard and was hard as steel. He also could upper cut his enemies high in the sky. He had every thing that Dr. Membres needed to conquer earth. " I need that robot" Dr. Membres said.

So Dr. Membres took out his Robot Magnet 2000 to attract Justin. Meanwhile the cleaning robot was cleaning the bosses office when it suddenly vanshished. On Dr. Membres scaner it said that a robot was found " I Gotcha" said Dr. Membres

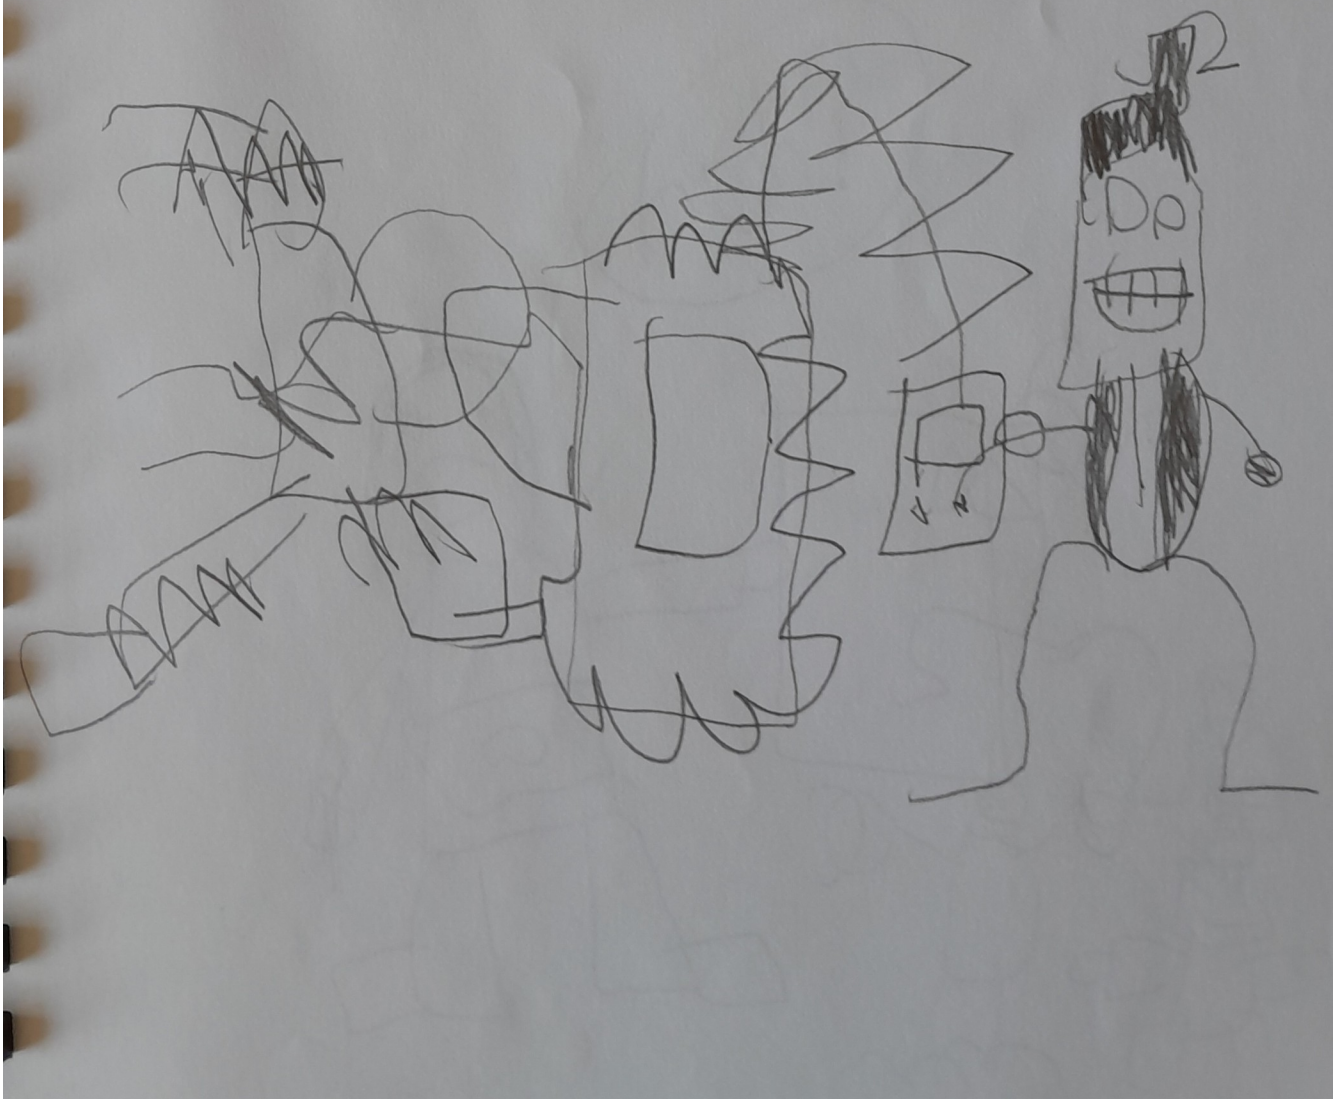


The cleaning robot stuck to the magnet. WHAT! yelled Dr. Membres every robot stuck to the magnet exept Justin. What are you doing asked the boss. Just testing out this new device. Oh ok the boss said. And gotta go see ya. my plan falied said Dr. Membres.



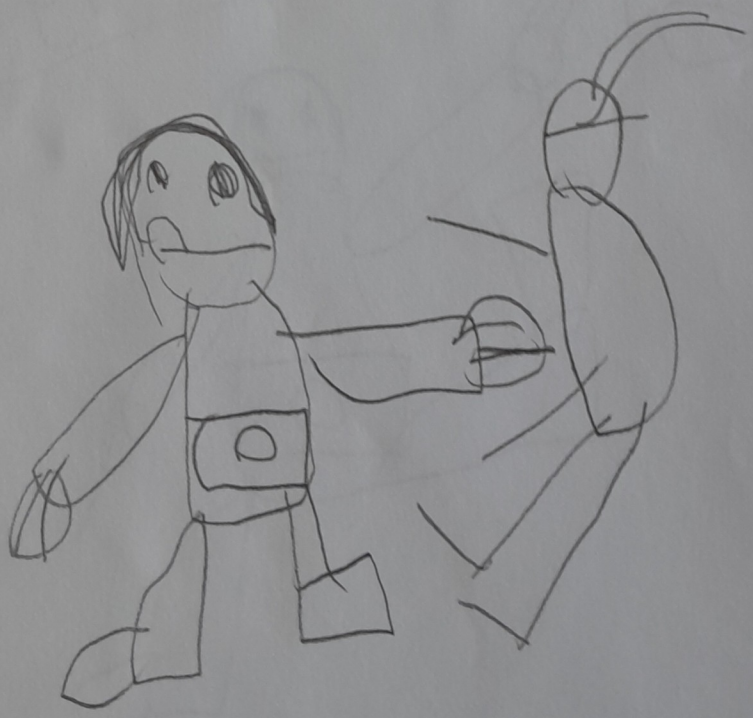
Dr. Membres got a new plan. He combined his robot controller with his Justin magnet 2000 and got a brand new invention. The robot controller magnet 4000.

So when the robots atact to the magnet they will get controlled and they will mix with Justin and then I will get my goal. Mewa ha ha ha.

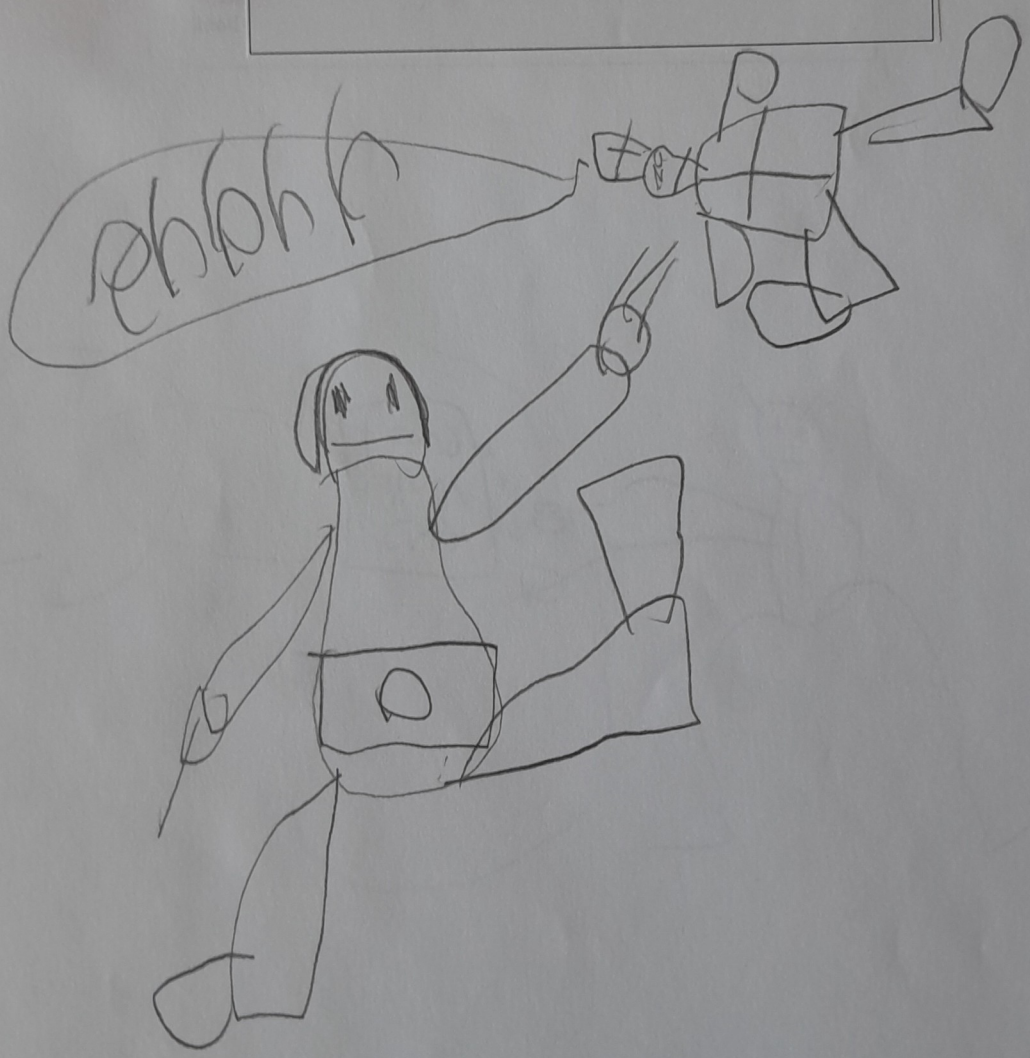


Justin lives in green city now. All of a sudden there was a knock at the door. [What now] said Justin. There was a excercize robot followed by a clean up robot, a Dr. robot and a robot trained to take apart another robot. Justin took heroic battle with the evil robots.

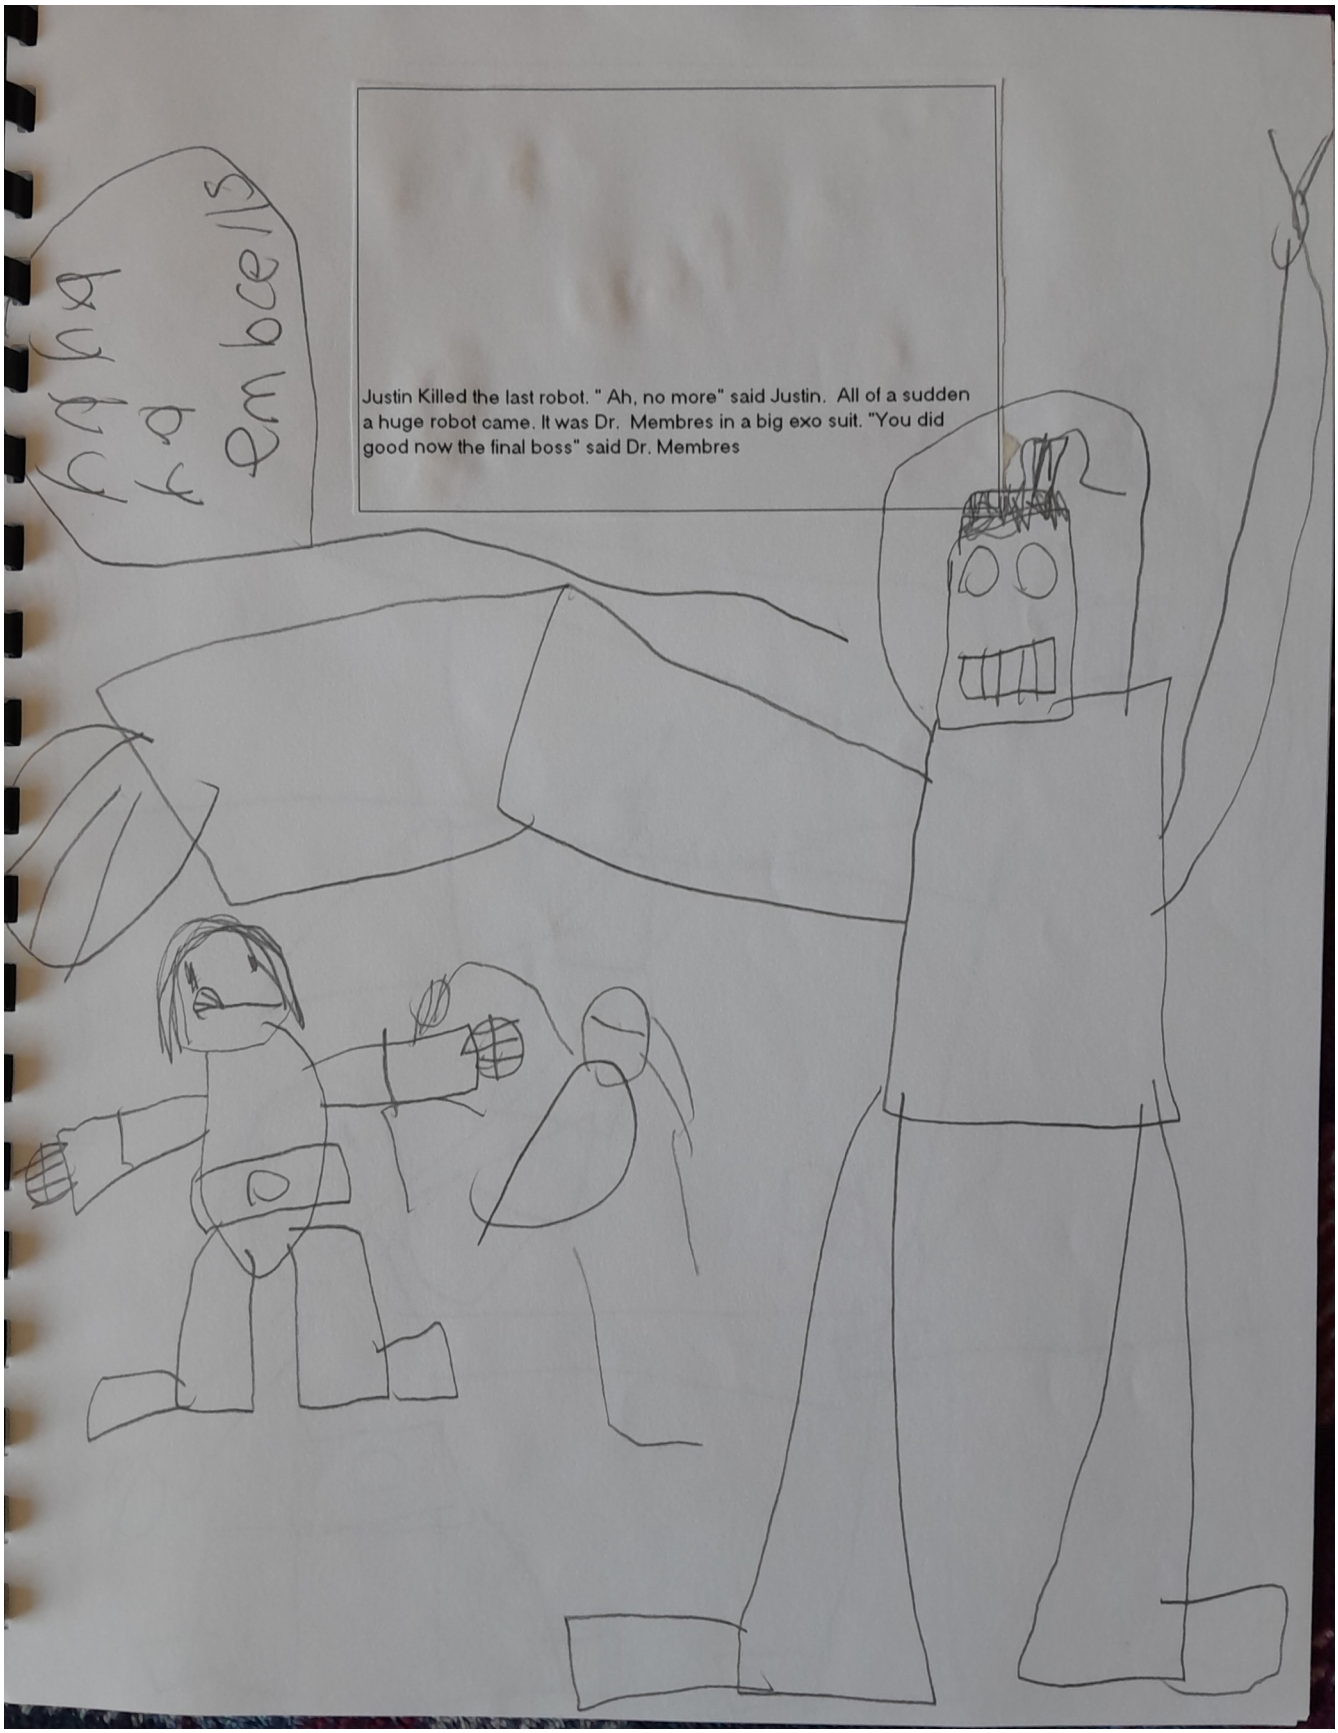
[Take That you Mecanical meanace]



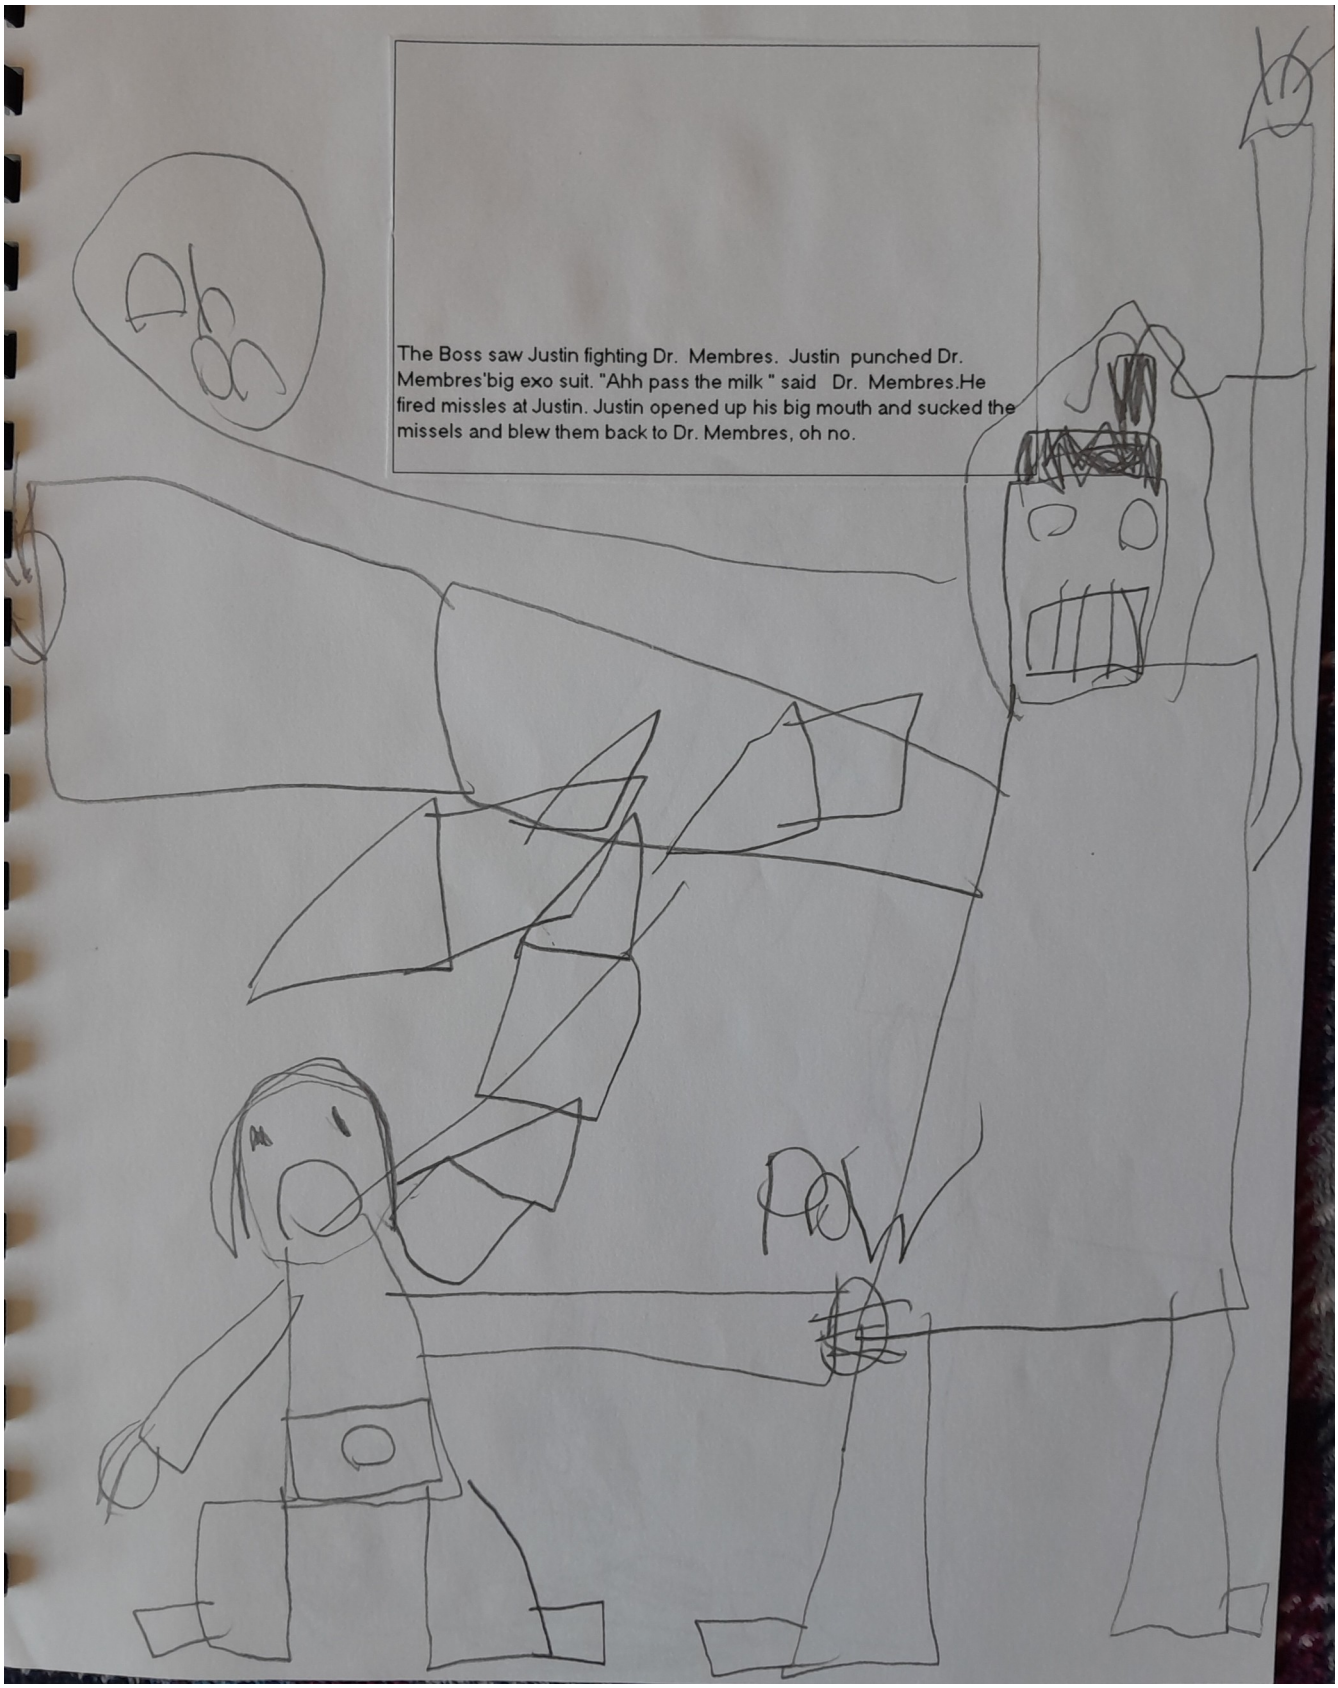
[Upper kicking is really fun.]



Meanwhile back at the craft research team The boss noticed that all the robots and Dr. Membres were gone. The boss used Dr. Membres' robot tracker to track where all the robots are. The signal lead to green city Justin's new home.

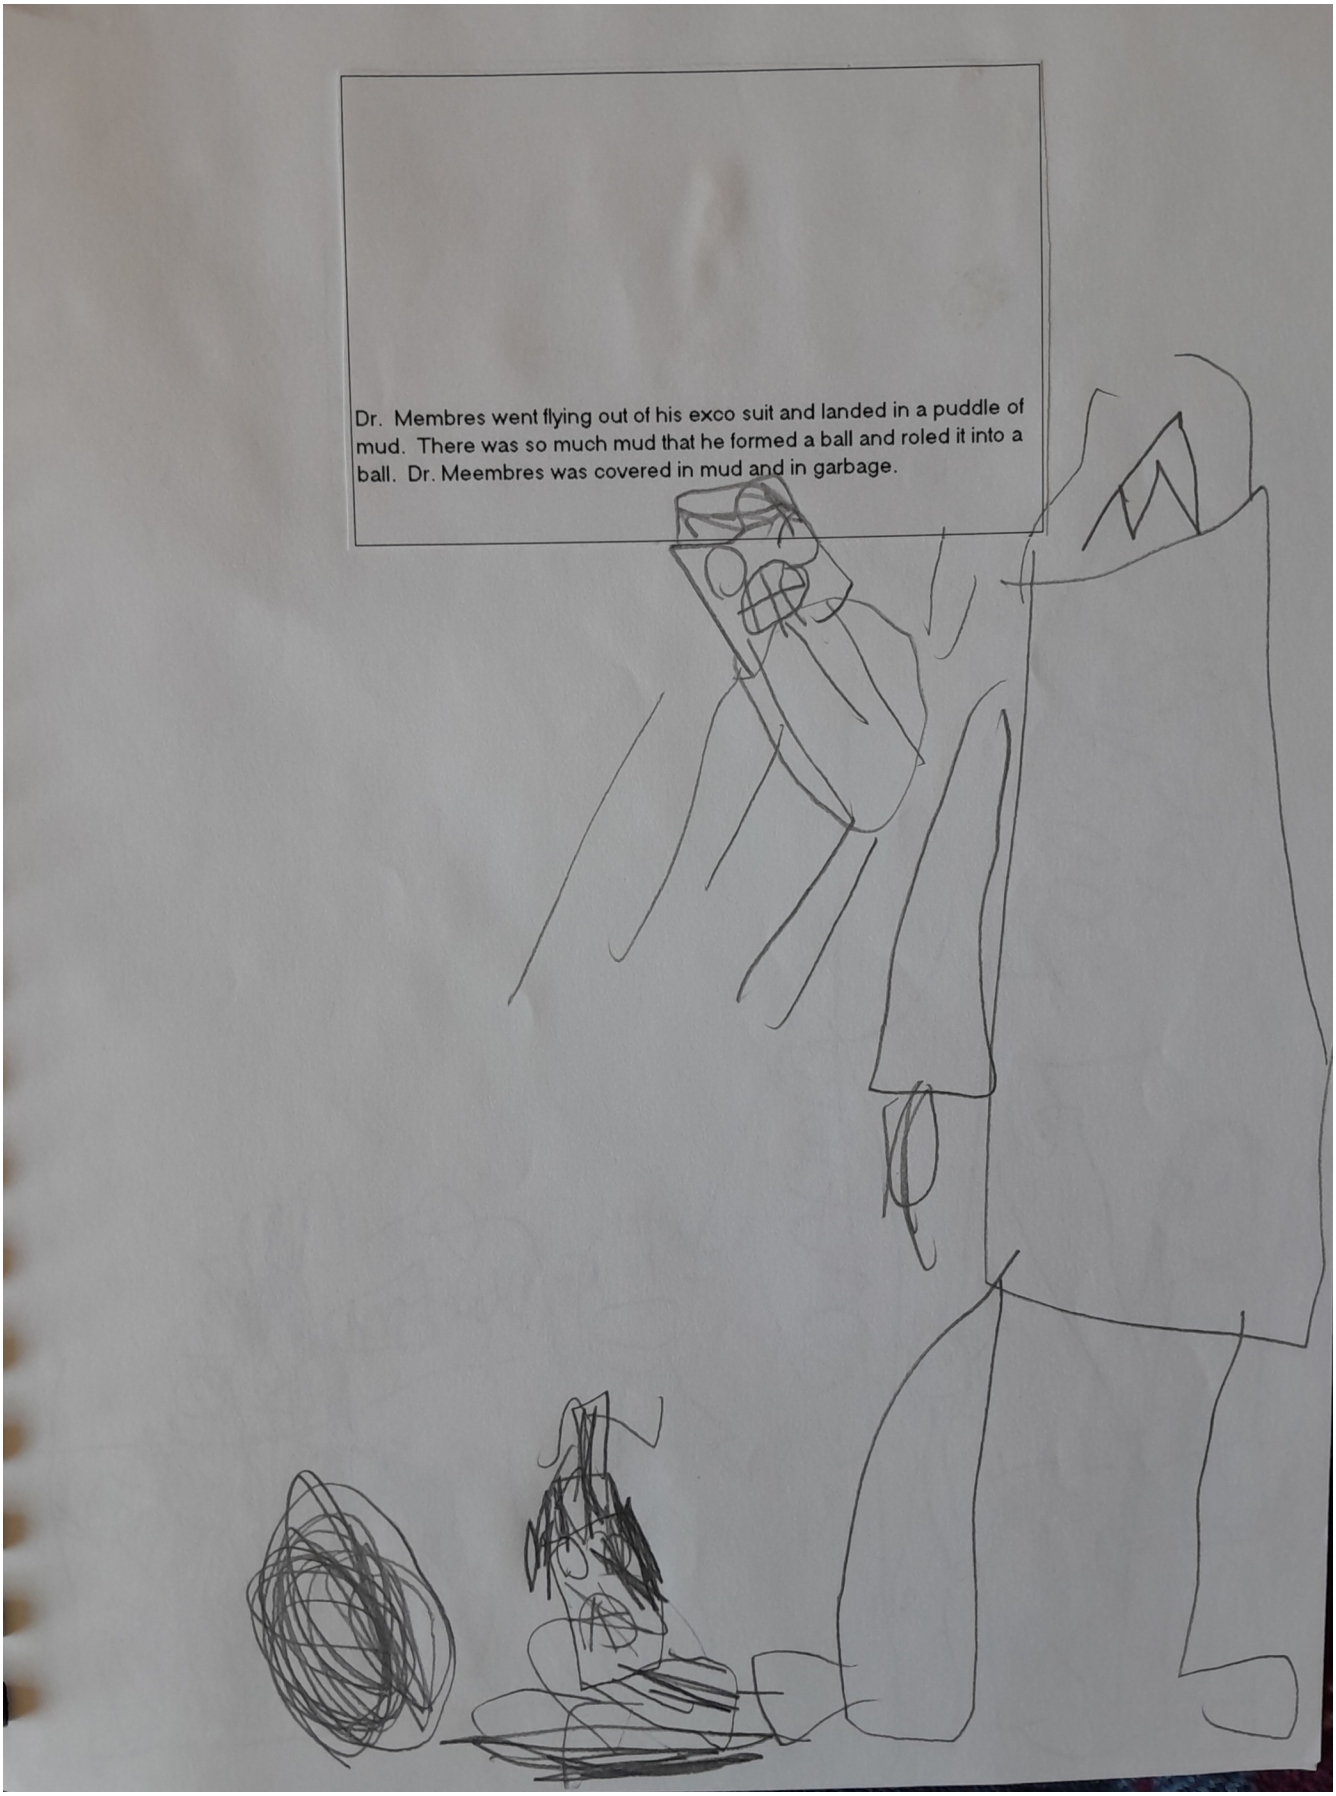


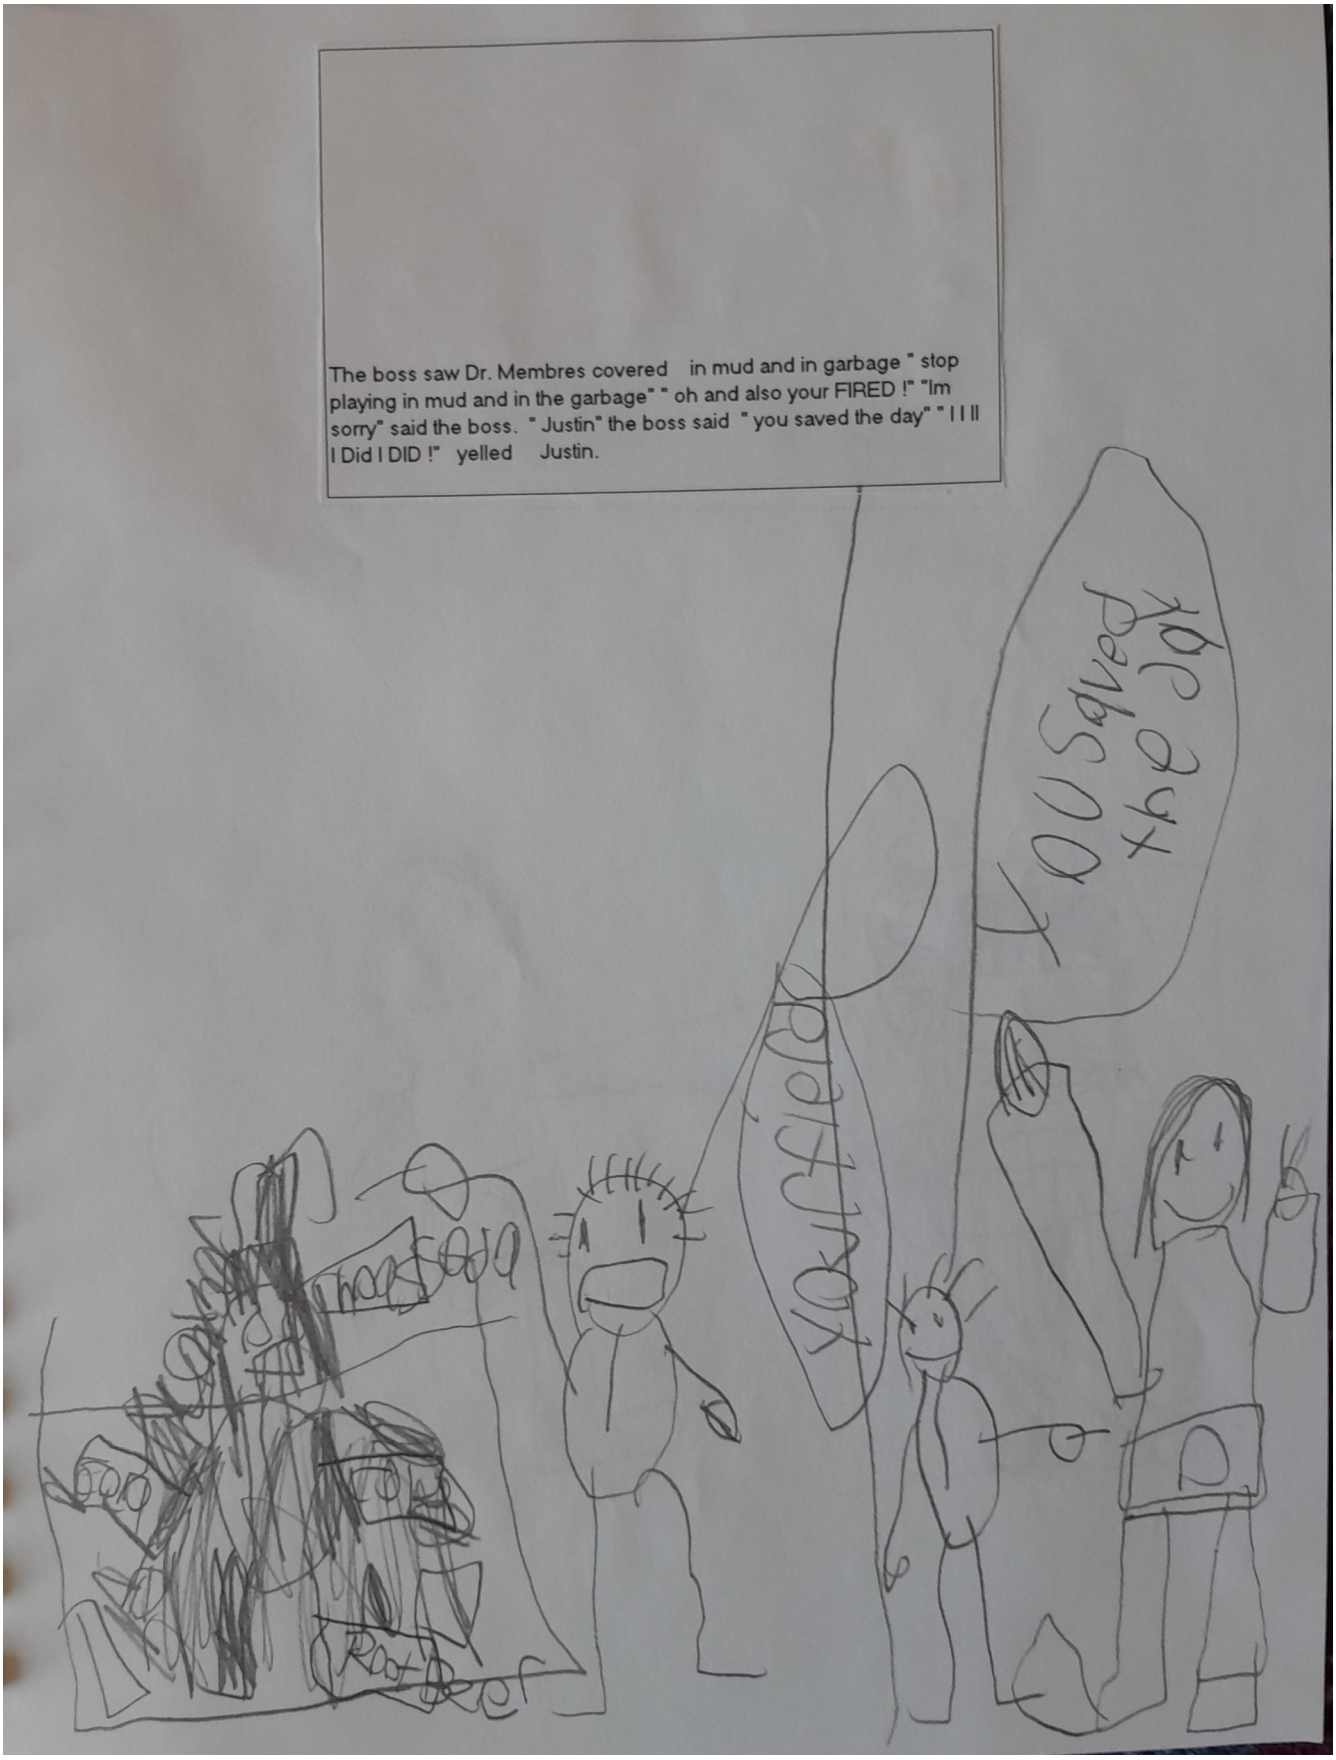
Justin Killed the last robot. " Ah, no more" said Justin. All of a sudden a huge robot came. It was Dr. Membres in a big exo suit. "You did good now the final boss" said Dr. Membres



The Boss saw Justin fighting Dr. Membres. Justin punched Dr. Membres'big exo suit. "Ahh pass the milk " said Dr. Membres.He fired missles at Justin. Justin opened up his big mouth and sucked the missels and blew them back to Dr. Membres, oh no.

Dr. Membres went flying out of his exco suit and landed in a puddle of mud. There was so much mud that he formed a ball and roled it into a ball. Dr. Meembres was covered in mud and in garbage.





The boss saw Dr. Membres covered in mud and in garbage " stop playing in mud and in the garbage" " oh and also your FIRED !" "Im sorry" said the boss. " Justin" the boss said " you saved the day" " I I II I Did I DID !" yelled Justin.
YOU Saved the DAY
Roast Beef

Justin won a life time supply of cream soda from the government of Green City. Justin sent Dr. Membres away for good to Blood Town and Justin our hero is off to new adventures to be the super mega robot.
